

RM-10740--I am strongly opposed to any new A3E and J3E bandwidth regulations. It appears that this "problem" concerns an extremely small minority of amateurs and I do not believe new regulations which would effect all amateurs is justifiable. The FCC certainly has enough duties as is without creating new ones. I believe all amateur interests can be accomodated within the existing rules by we, the amateur community.

Submitted by, Ralph C. Warlow K5WQI